

The Benefits of Mediation

- ✚ The parties may achieve greater satisfaction by conducting mediation to obtain the rights they really want.
- ✚ The relationship may improve between the parties by finding solutions during mediation.
- ✚ The parties may participate easily in their cases as mediation is a simple process.
- ✚ Mediation can be proceeded easily within a short time.
- ✚ As it is not required to conduct in public, the information that the parties want to keep can be preserved confidentially.
- ✚ Mediation can be carried out with low cost.

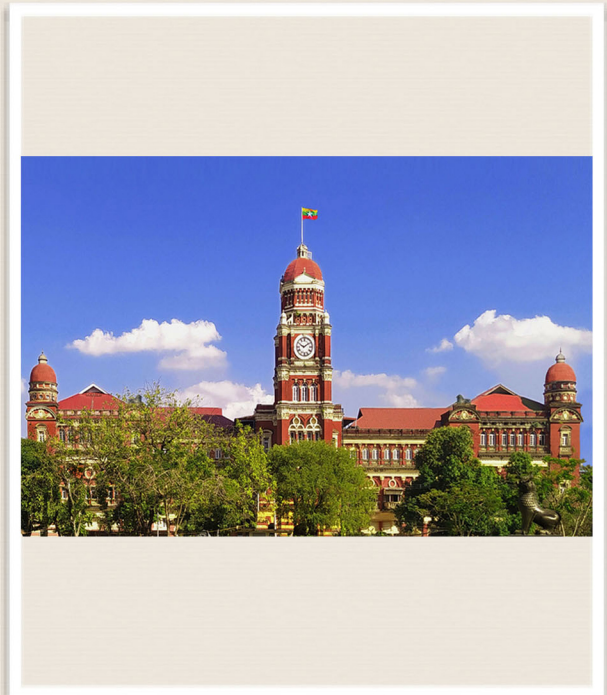

Court-Led Mediation

Do you know that you can mediate the civil cases which you file at the court?
You may inquire this information at the court.

Court-Led Mediation

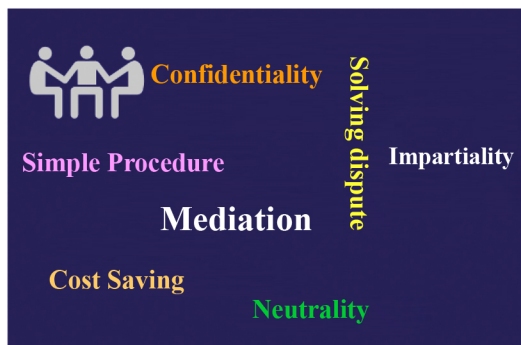

Court-Led Mediation

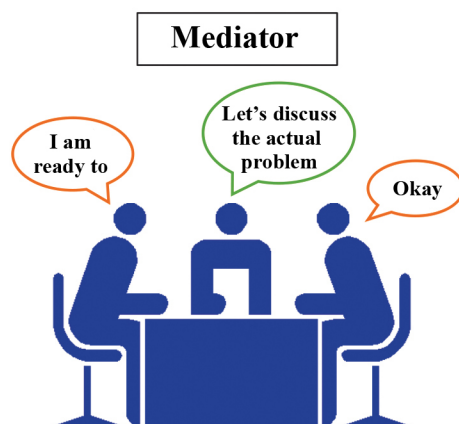

- ✚ What is Court-Led Mediation?
- ✚ What are the benefits of mediation?
- ✚ How do the prescribed cases differ from the voluntary cases to conduct mediation?

High Court of the Yangon Region

No.(101/103), Pansodan street, Kyauktada Township, Yangon
<https://yangon.hc.gov.mm>

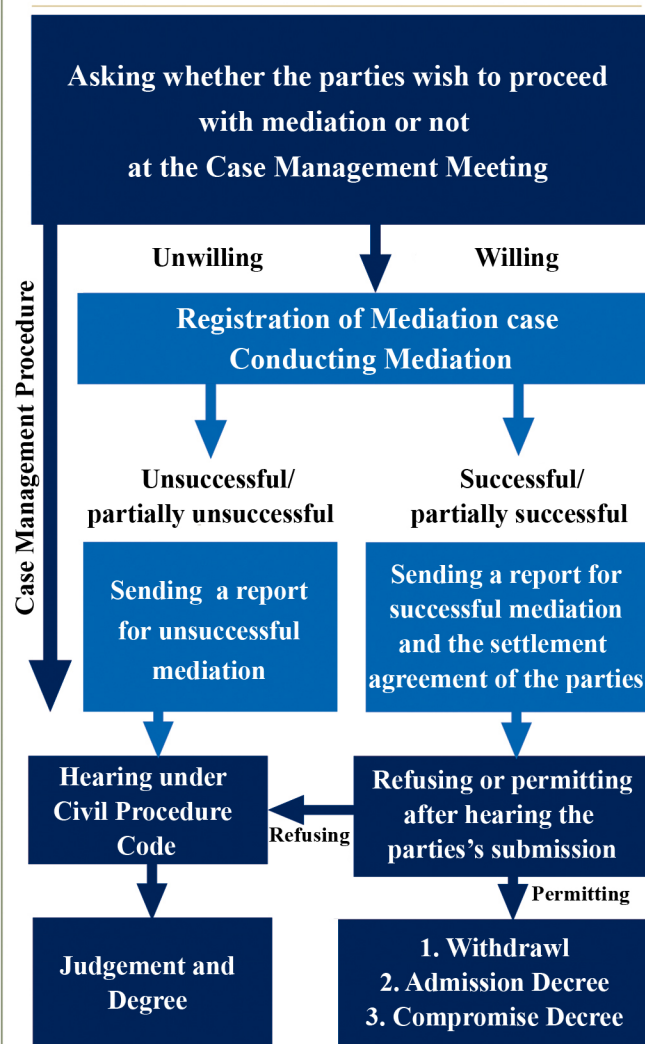

Court-Led Mediation ?

It is a process of resolving the dispute between the parties with the assistance of a mediator to reach a mutually acceptable agreement after a civil suit has been filed in court.

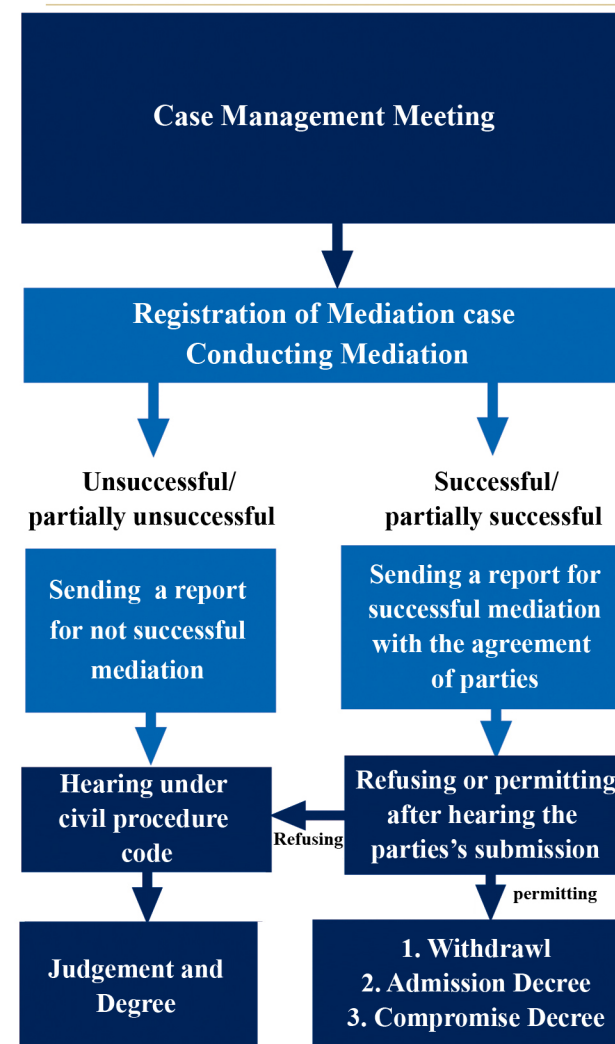

Conducting mediation with the consent of parties

Mediation can be performed with the consent of parties

Conducting mediation in prescribed civil cases

Some cases are prescribed to be mediated. Judicial proceedings are not suspended during mediation.

